

Job Description – Website Development Engineer

This is a great opportunity to work for this international company in website development. You will have varied and interesting work as part of a team, interacting with customers and processing jobs from initial enquiry through to completion.

Purpose of the role

To build and maintain websites and databases for our international client base.

Reporting to

Lead Developer

Main Responsibilities

Your role will encompass all aspects of website development, management and hosting. This includes:

- Working with clients to plan and design their website
- Project manage website development from design to completion
- Developing themes, layouts and website structure
- Designing modules for client-specific requirements, allowing them to manage content more easily
- Integration with external modules – accounting, CRM, databases, other systems, as required
- Website testing and cross-platform
- Website Content management
- Search engine optimisation
- Website Hosting and backup management
- Website health checks
- Design and develop databases with online portals

Skills Required

- Website development experience, including Wordpress and bespoke development
- Website design abilities desirable but not essential
- Project management in a website development environment
- Customer service skills, excellent verbal and written communication
- Writing code - HTML, PHP, CSS and relevant website codes
- Wordpress Theme management and development
- Ability to write mySQL / SQL modules and amend existing database code
- Highly IT literate
- SEO- knowledge of, plus experience preferred
- Copywriting/creative writing - excellent grammar and spelling
- Organised, with great attention to detail

Personal Qualities

- Ability to interpret customer requirements and provide recommendations and guidance based on best-practice
- Drive and passion for technology, notably online, and to progress in the field of website development with CCS
- Positive and can-do attitude
- Helpful and cooperative teamworker
- Creative and imaginative
- Commitment to excellence
- Ability to learn and adapt quickly on the job.
- Great customer skills and team spirit.
- Excellent telephone manner and customer service.
- Presentable and authoritative with customers, in person or on calls
- 2 years+ work experience or demonstrable equivalent

Candidates who do not have all of the skill-sets / experience above are still encouraged to apply since training can be provided accordingly.

Remuneration

- Salary commensurate with skill levels and experience.
- Role is eligible for inclusion in website team Performance-related bonus scheme
- Company SIM card

Company information

We are a small but growing business providing marketing support to clients in the BVI, wider Caribbean, USA and UK. The founder and operations manager now require additional support owing to the growing requirements from our clients. Our focus is on providing support in the fields of lead generation, website content management/SEO and online communication campaigns.

Location: British Virgin Islands

Apply by email with resume and covering letter to:
guy@phoenixcaribbean.com